

College of DuPage Native American Studies Committee, Glen Ellyn Library,
and Glen Ellyn Historical Society present:

Native Advocacy Roundtable

Native Americans of Glen Ellyn: Past, Present, and Future

Tues, March 23 6:30-8:00 p.m.

Learn about the strong Native presence in the DuPage region and how to be an active ally for the local Native American community.

Zoom link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/85162959171>

Four part presentation

- Historical Perspective; Kirk Burger, Glen Ellyn Historical Society Assistant Director and Joseph Standing Bear, Midwest SOARRING Foundation President
- Native Student Experience; Samantha Thompson, COD Student and member of Potawatomi Nation and Mercedes Reza, COD Student and Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls Advocate
- Education Perspective; John Paris, COD Associate Professor of History and Candace McCreary, COD Sociology Instructor
- Q&A; Joan DiPiero, COD Community Engagement Specialist and Josh O'Shea, Glen Ellyn Library Young Adult Librarian